

In the Specification:

Please substitute the following amended paragraph for the paragraph of the specification beginning on page 7, line 22:

In one embodiment, one or more of the game pieces 18A-E, 20A-E can become permanently deformed during a battle. Alternatively, the game pieces 18A-E, 20A-E can be temporarily deformed during a battle, and can be subsequently restored to their original configuration for use during another battle or another game. For example, the game pieces 18A-E, 20A-E can be "break-off" keys. Some examples of various types of break-off keys are more fully described in United States Patent Application Publication No. 6,739,935 US 2001/0009837 A1, ~~filed by Teunenbroek~~ issued to Van Teunenbroek et al., published on July 26, 2001. However, any break-off key or another suitable game piece that is capable of being temporarily or permanently deformed during a battle with another game piece can be utilized with the game 10 described herein. As far as permitted, the disclosure in United States Patent Application Publication No. 6,739,935 US 2001/0009837 A1 is incorporated herein by reference.
